FRENCH PRESIDENT EMISIGREETING TO NEW TALIAN ALLY

Tay of the mond Tulnos es a visit to the asmiss on Dorraine es, sent the King of Italy ditte Wonges, sent the King of Haly of billowing telegrams.

It this soften hour, when Italy turnel spons the abritous path marked it by her dustinles, all France is adopted the first the assert mations a roing to fights occurred a difficulty of their common additionation of the traditional of the common additional process of the france in the first path of the first path of their common additional of the first path of the by this new tratemity

With these soldiers

nal aspirations and an accept these as-oted, friendship."

CAPPELL RESTRICTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PRO ALMATTRULIANO

er these Tunnels as they er these. The rush of wachip went below the sur-and a collapsible boat from and I swam toward it. Three markeds it and we floated ours, picking up, swimmers. There were bodies. There were wom-tro-children—dead."

The picked up the boat, but up were greatly overcrowded.

The scaped swamping. I seed to with may legs in the manner that he will never forget was the scanner as the ship turned on its side and the huge funnels sucked tor-rents of water and huge ts of water and human beings— etheir depths. An inrushing flood into their depths. An inrushing flood detect with women and children was visus for several minutes and then came emplosion. The trapped were his win the came the explosion of the funnels. He was the essertions of that experience and he declared they were bis changled in they were of the white ascertained if, they were of the white race or black.

Mr. Brooks will resume business in a day or two, according to a cable also received to-day. He has been supplied with funds. When he landed in Europe) he, had morely $1.50 in the clothes he wore.

Home For Infants Deesn't Appeal To Neighbors; Vacated

The sudden termination of the lease on the beautiful Anson street residence occupied by the infants' department of the Charities depart-ment caused them to move hurriedly ment caused them to move hurriedly about 18 bables today. Temporary quarters have been procured on Laurel avenue pending the transfer of the children to the new home in Fairfield donated to the city. It is expected that this new place may be taken June 1. Further arrangements for the care of the children in this city next within will be con-during the summer months.

It is said that the sudden cancellation of the Anson street lease was due to protests made by those residing in the neighborhood that the chil-

SWETZERDAND AND SPAIN

TAKE DIPLOMATED TASKS Berne, Switzerland, May 25-The Swiss government has announced that it will represent the interests at Rome for the German empire and of Logan Bros. says the plans were not Beyaria, and that the interests of the satisfactory and they refused to pay stria-Hungary will be represented the amount Suck demanded. Spain.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. William Faulkner of 115 Center street are the happy par-ents of a hoy born Sunday night. The little fellow weighed ten pounds.

DIED

DOHERTY-In this city, May 25, 1915, Catherine E., daughter of John and Mary Doherty of 7 1-2 Notice of funeral hereafter.

PRYOR—In this city, Tuesday, May $5, 1815, Mary, wife of Thomas Pryor, aged 74 years 11 months.
Friends are invited to attend the funesal from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. F. J. Williams, No. 654 Wachington avenue, on Thursday, May 27th at 8:30 a. m., and from St. Augustine's church at 9 o'clock. Burial at St. Mary's Cemetery, Norwalk, Conn. Automobile R 25 b*

TRUMBULL—At Sea, May, 1915, Isaac B. Trumbull, aged 32 years. Friends are invited to attend the funeral at his late residence, No. 440 Mill Hill avenue, Bridgeport, on Tuesday, May 25th at 2:30 p. m. Interment at Mt. Grove cemetery. R 22 b*

JOHN RECK & SON OPPOSITE ST. MICHAEL'S GATE

PLANTS OF ALL KINDS FOR PLANTING GRAVES

BRANCH IN CHARGE OF JAMES DUGGAN

PAINTERS WANTED-Apply P. Coughlin Co.

WANTED-Position as housekeeper by elderly lady in small family. Ap-F. A. M., 112 Grand St., Car

Mrs. Spencer.

5 and 6 room modern apartments to rent. Lenox Bldg., cor Main street, North avenue, very desirable, for dentists. Apply on premises

R 25 d*

R24 d*p Farmer Want Ads. One Cent a Word.

Summary War News

announcement made by the war office at Rome to-day that Italian forces had penetrated Austrian territory along a line running about 40 miles north from the Gulf of Trieste, capturing four towns within two or three miles of the

An Italian destroyer raided the Austrian port of Buso, near the frontier, destroying the landings. station and barracks. Two Austrians were killed, the first casualty only reported in the new campaign.

It is regarded in London as probable that the Austro-German army will make the first important-move by striking at the Italian center in the direction of Ve-

Heavy fighting is in progress once more on the western end of the Franco-Belgian front British German and French forces making attacks at various ts between Arras and the t. There is no sign as yet, however, of a general assault by the allies such as has been predioted.

Despatches from Athens reiterated the report that the Tur-kish attack on Gallipeli peninsula made with the pick of the Austrian army was a fallure. It is stated that wounded Turkish sol-diers, by the thousands are arriv-ing in Constantinople and that all assaults have been repulsed by

BALDWIN'S MAIL FRAUD CASE GOES BEFORE U. S. JURY

Hartford, May 25—Many cases were presented to the federal grand jury for indictment when the United States court opened here today. Two of these were not made public. Among the others were those of Clarence H. Baldwin, of Bridgeport, accused fraud in connection with use of the mails; John A. Delmore, accused of theft of mail pouch at New Haven; William D. Rebrerge, boy, accused of abstracting checks from mail in Westwille. Ernest L. Davis, of Putnam, was chosen foreman of the jury.

Criminal cases were assigned, among those Salmoon Schwartz, charged with complicity in counterfeiting, to be heard June 1; George A. Smith and George Nordaby of Nev Haven, for impersonating a United tates officer, trial June 3. Cases of D. E. Loewe & Company against the Union Savings Bank and the Savings Bank of Danbury to re-cover attached deposits of Danbury hatters were not assigned.

Many Attend Funeral of Isaac B. Trumbull

The funeral of Isaac B. Trumball held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from his late home on Mill Hill avenue and was attended by many business acquaintances and his relatives in this city and Plainville.

Rev. J. O. Ferris of New York conducted the funeral services. The body was buried in Mountain Grove come tery.

LOGAN BROS. DISPUTE

BILL OF ARCHITECT A dispute about a bill for plans for heard this afternoon by Judge Scott distance away and unless a person There was a large attendance of relin the civil common pleas court, had occasion to know the spot in atives and friends.

Adolph Suck, a Boston architect and which the body was found they would Stepney cemetery. engineer who drew the plans, brought the action. He wants $750. Logan Bros. says the plans were not

BRIEF ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

The home of Mrs. George W. Potyesterday afternoon, several board immediately severed by a person about $100. In accordance with the vote of the board of apportionment at its last meeting, the city clerk was today sending to all city boards and departments warnings against exceeding their appropriations.

Marriage licenses were granted to-day to Fritz G. Arvidson, 27, machinist, 599 Lafayette street and Julia Etta Robinson of this city, -year-old girl, has brought proceedings against Harry Tickey of this city, claiming he is the father of her child. Justice Mare found probable cause and held Tickey for the civil common pleas court under bonds of $750. Tickey denies the girl's charge.

Coroner Phelan this afternoon visit- fast losing ground. d the plant of the Bridgeport Arms the statements of several workmen who were eye witnesses when a huge pile of bags filled with cement toppled

The board of health will hold its those responsible behind the bars. regular meeting at 8 o'clock in the

For the purpose of determining the not married, well nurtured and of rates of postage on fourth class, or parcel post mail, a guide for 55 cents map for 20 cents may be purchased together or separately (the two the crime was committed for a are used jointly in computing postage) potent reason than the usual sordid by sending a money order for the proper amount payable to the third assistant postmaster general, Divisio of Finance, Washington, D. C.

Captain Frederick J Breckbill, suerintendent of mails at the local post ffice, returned yesterday to his post at the office after a 10 days' absence in Chicago and Ohio.

Five thousand men will be added as once to the force of the DuPont Pow der Co. plant at City Point, Va., bring the number of employees to 15,

MILFORD WOMAN MURDER VICTIM?

Continued from Page 1

but they are boss in this country or at least they seem to know more than their parents I hope that they make out alright.

Im so sorry that John is so Its too bad a young careless. man of his age to be in sph a cause you a lot of worry but such is the ways of the world. people never know what crosses they have to meet in this world It certainly must cause you a lot of trouble at this time of your life. I thought better of him at one time. Its too had how all is changed.

I was talking to Tom the other evening. He is bothered with rheumatism and it looks kind of bad for him now. I meet Annie once in a while she always asks for you She wants to know if ever you make a call to Lowell again. I tell her I don't know but I hope it may be possible that you could come and I hope you will. I have no more news at this time. Mrs. Rourke and Winnie and all the family send their best love to you, to Josie and Jack and family. So goodbye,

From your nephew, MICHAEL O'LOUGHLIN, 19 North Franklin St.,

Lowell Mass P. S .- I hope the Germans will win. Inquiry by Detective Sergeant Hall into the family and recent whereabouts of Mrs. John Weidenheimer shows that she has a mother living at the corner of Ogden and Pembroke streets, Mrs. Margaret Gill. She had not seen her daughter in some time, though she believed that it was more recently than February. When last heard from she was supposed to be

A sister in law, Mrs. Thomas Murphy, living on Stratford avenue, in and fined $50 and costs this morning. Stratford, reported that she had no seen amything of Mrs. Weidenheimer Greenspun Fined For for several months. She was last known to be living in Milford but is known to have spent much time in Bridgeport.

The police are of the belief that there has recently been little in common between Mr. and Mrs. Weidenheimer and other members of their suspended later. that she had not spoken to her brothily had called to relate family experiences that are now being fully investigated by the officers.

Special orders have been issued by the police to observe all sections of chestnut tree which today acts as a marker for the possible grave of other parts of the body. When the exca vating work approaches this section late today a special force of men will be detailed to carefully go over every effort to secure further evidence of esterday afternoon at Lakeview Home by Rourke & Boucher, but the filling will not be completed until final orders shall be issued by the cor-

done in Bridgeport and by Bridgeport people," was the expression of Super-"While it is possible that the body tinued the chief of the Bridgeport police, "I am of the opinion that it was done by somebody living in the neighborhood or well familiar with the Outsiders would not be likely to select the place for the hiding spot of be unlikely to visit it."

Speaking of the possibility that the work was that of persons living on shipboard, the detectives were in-clined to scout the theory in view of shipboard, the the medical examiner's statement that and chemise, as well as the clear demarcation of the saw marks on the neck and nether limbs. This would indicate that the woman had been ter, 369 East Main street, was robbed killed while asleep or in a bed and ers losing their possessions packed in acquainted with edged tools, yet not The loss is estimated at of the medical profession, for such person would rather have dissected the body at the joints by the use of a

Search today is being made in all surrounding towns and cities in the hope that some person may be found who came to this city with some man and failed to return.

The record of all those persons known to have worked at any time on the sewer-way crossing from Seaview venue to Yellow Mill pond, which Sundvall, 26, housemaid 210 Elinwood ayenue; and Fred F. Weingartner, under the supervision of Clark, will be closely looked into with-Caroline J. Rofhe, 38, factory worker, in the next few days, for it is probable that the body was buried in the able that the body was buried in the was completed about two years ago by

Efforts to establish the fact that an utomobile might have driven to the spot from another city with portions of the victim are today also being made. It could not be ascertained from any in the vicinity that during the summer or early fall anyone had attempted to borrow either a pick or shovel, and the automobile theory is

"Stuttering Jack" case cleared up by Superintendent Birmingham and Captain Arnold many years ago, where similar putrid piece of flesh was found over on Michael Solomon, a Greek ia- after being abandoned in the woods for many months, leads the authorities hope that they will eventually land

The fact that the torso proved by autopsy under Medical Examiner Garto be that of a woman, probably cleanly habits, and upon which no attempt had been made towards illegal medical practice, tends to show that motives

Superintendent Birmingham today said: "I shall put every available man on this case. It is most mysterious and as I am now of the opinion that It was committed in some Bridgeport home. I shall do everything in my power to run it to the ground." Great interest is taken in the pro gress of the huge steam shovel that unearthed the first gruesome find. As t returns towards the section traversed by the sewer keen watch is being takthe City Ice and Coal Company in the by all the workmen employed by its load of silt into the dump-carts, and in the larger particles of earth HEAD OF UNION TO the "fill" that is being made. There is little chance that other sections, if buried in the locality, will be missed. There is prevailing belief today that the head and legs of the woman were thrown into the waters adjacent to Bridgeport, and that the person disposing of the torso was well aware that it could not be weighted sufficiently to keep it beneath the surface of the water-hence the burial. Though search had previously been made for women supposed to have left Herkimer and Amsterdam, N. Y., and Seattle, Wash., these persons since have been accounted for. There were no new names reported to the police to-day, though they will welome any information at this time

CONFERENCE FRIDA' ON PROPOSITION TO LEVY SPECIAL TAX

Dr. Robert J. Lynch and Attorney Fred D. Keeler, board of apportionnent committee to arrange a special tax to provide for the state and county taxes and also for an unexpended revenue fund wil have a conference with the city attorney on Friday.

Sunday Liquor Dealer Fined $50 and Costs

Following the arrest of dock loungers in a clean-up made by Captain Regan and a squad of policemen last Wilder that the police ascertain where the liquor is being sold on Sunday Samuel Frankel, proprietor of a store at Water and Bank streets, was arrested upon information furnished by Thomas Riley of New York, one of the men captured Sunday. Frankel was found guilty of serving hard cider

Driving Recklessly

Louis Greenspun, 199 Parrott ave charged with reckless driving was found guilty in the city court this morning and fined $25. Judgment was Mrs. Murphy told officers car on Main street last week when he struck and knocked down E. E. Diler in months, and friends of the fam- liston, a teller in the Connecticut National bank. Dilliston was not seriously injured.

The case against John D. Mills of Nichols, likewise charged, was nolled in the court teday when it was shown earth taken from the vicinity of the that his victim, riding a motorcycle, had become confused.

OBITUARY

SUSAN B. ABERCROMBIE. Susan B., daughter of Alexander V. street, died this morning at Bridgeport Hospital as the result of a The torso of the woman was buried lingering filness. Miss Abercrombie, was 31 years of age.

The funeral of Eugene, infant son of Carmine and Mary G. Guzzi, was held yesterday from the home of his parents, 551 Warren street. Rev. parents, 551 Warren street. Rev. Breen was in the employ of Attor-Matthew Judge of the Sacred Heart ney O'Neil. Mooney refused to sign intendent Eugene Birmingham today. church conducted the services. In- the statement and shortly afterward terment was in St. Michael's ceme-tery. the charges were brought against At-torney Peck. It was alleged that The I

MARTHA A. HAWLEY.

Descon Burr Hawley, was held from her late residence in Stepney at 2 Logan Bros. garage resulted in a suit crime, as the main highway for veagainst the local firm which was hicles passing out of this city is some tist church at 2:30 this afternoom. Interment was in

PATRICK G. HEISSNER.

Patrick G., the two year old son f Charles and Mary Heissner, died last night at the home of his parents, 567 Seaview avenue, the funeral will the body was wrapped in a nightgown be held this evening at 8 o'clock. The will be John MacLaren Richardson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. terment will be in Lakeview ceme

SARAH A. SCARRITT.

Death came this morning to Sarah wife of Charles Scarritt at the iome of her daughter, 1216 Franistan Mrs. Scarritt was 80 years She had resided in this city of age. past 48 years, having spent most of that time on the East Side of the city. She was a prominent member of the Second Baptist church, and had a great number of friends in this city who will be grieved to learn of her death. Surviving her are her husband, a daughter, Mrs. G. H. Noble, and a son, William G. Johnson of New Haven.

MARY PRYOR. Death came early this morning to home of her daughter, Mrs. F. J. Williams of 654 Washington avenue. went to bed last evening apparently in he best of health but during the night she was stricken with an attack of acute indigestion. She passed away within a short time. Mrs. Pryor was a life long resident of Georgetown, Conn., but had come to Comparison of the case with the this city to reside with her daughter some four years ago. Besides her husband and daughter she is survived by three sons, Edward of this city and John and Thomas of Georgetown. The body will be taken to Norwalk, for interment in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery.

MARY BURKE HALLORAN.

The funeral of Mary Burke, wife of lames Halloran, whose death occurred on Sunday at the Bridgeport hospital, was held from her late home, 1111 Barnum avenue, at 8:30 this morning and from St. Charles' church where the mass of requiem was sung by Rev. P. J. McGivney at 9 o'clock. An attendance of sorrowing friends escorted the body to the church and grave and the floral tributes which surrounded the casket were of unusual At the offertory Miss Jessie eauty. Murray sang, "De Profundis" and as the body was being borne from the church, "Thy Will Be Done." Rev. Father McGivney read the commital service at St. Michael's cemetery The bearers were Howard Bradley, John F. Phelan, Thomas Tobin, Dan-Michael Lavery and contents of the big bucket as it drops | Michael Ford.

ORDER MEN TO GO END DISAGREEMEN

Bricklayers Have Until Tomorrow Morning to Return to Their Jobs.

International President William J Bowen of the Bricklayers' and Plaserers' union came to this city this afternoon to attempt an adjustment that tends to show that women have of the dispute between the bricklavers on the buildings of the Bridgeport Arms Works and the Stewart Construction Co., which employed them. President Bowen will order the men back to work. If they do not comply their places will be taken.

The Stewart Construction Co. announced today that unless the striking workmen return to their jobs tomorrow morning, they will be sup-planted by others. The double check system protest will be met with compliance but the company refuses to grant the increase to 70 cents an hour. The union's local has announced that it does not sanction the walk out. The demand for 70 cents an hour is contrary to the rules of the union. President Bowen will so inform the men this evening.

An agitator attempted to stir up labor trouble this morning among the masons' helpers, who were thrown out of work when the bricklayers quit. He met with indifferent success Men who are not residents of the city but who have attempted to profit by the fact that the Stewart work is rush job and demand more wages, Sunday, and demand made by Judge are credited with inciting the walk

SHARP REPRIMAND FOR LAWYER WHO WROTE TO PAPER

On Trial For Subornation of Perjury, He is Rebuked By Court.

Attorney Walter F. Peck, the New York lawyer, on trial in the criminal superior court for subornation of perjury, was severely rebuked this morning by Judge William S. Case for sending an article bearing on the trial to a local evening paper. Case said such practices, while a trial was in progress, were contrary to the customs of Connecticut courts. He warned Attorney Peck not to allow such a thing to happen again or the consequences would be serious. Atney T. J. O'Neil of New York, pleaded ignorance of the customs of this load of dirt taken from the spot in an and Bessie Abercromble of 20 Hayes state and the court said he would accept the excuse this time.

The morning session was taken with the examination of John T. Breen, an investigator in the employ of the New Haven railroad company Breen testified he came to this city with Attorney Peck to see Hugh Mooney about a signed statement regarding the suit of Mary Horn against the New Haven road. At that time Mooney was asked to swear that he heard Duncan McMillan, a railroad The funeral of Martha A., wife of foreman, say the wires were grounded and it was all right to go back to

This would have made valuable estimony in the suit Mrs. Horn brought against the railroad company for the death of her husband, who was electrocuted by the wires to which McMillan referred. Mrs. Horn subsequently recovered $12,000 in the New York courts. Breen admitted on cross examination that while in the employ of Attorney O'Neil he had an appointment with a lawver representing the rail. road. He asked the lawyer for $7,500. Breen declared he had nothing to sell the lawyer, but expected he would go to work for the railroad. The trial was still on at press hour

Calburn Followers Brave Rain To See "The Tenderfoot."

Rain held no terrors last night for the Calburn Musical Comedy company's followers for they came in numbers which taxed the seating capacity of the house, to view the open-ing performance of "The Tenderfoot" tuneful and witty comedy holds the bill at the Lyric this week. One of the leading members of the cast this week is "Ruppertz," a don-key who bears in "The Tenderfoot." 'Ruppertz" like the applause which greated his entrance so well last night that he refused to leave the stage Mary, wife of Thomas Pryor, at the when it was time for him to make his exit. Much pushing and coaxing on the part of the actors and clap-Mrs. Pryor, who was 74 years of age, ping on that of the audience made "Ruppertz" all the more firm in his resolve to stick to the life on the stage. It was not until some time after the action of the play had detracted the audience's attention from the solitary donkey that he slunk quietly off the stage.

EVANS IS APPOINTED

ASSISTANT TREASURER Washington, May 25-President Wilson today appointed John Evans assistant treasurer of United States at Philadelphia.

SUED FOR AUTO CHARGES

Arthur L. Ruland, a local manufacturer, has been sued for $500 by the Aston Motor Car Co. of State In papers filed today in common pleas court it is alleged that owes for automobile repairs. Ruland disputes the charge.

William Whaton, leaves an estate of $3,064.42 according to the inventory filled by the appraisers in the The homestead probate court today. which comprised the house and lot in Hazelwood avenue owned by the deceased grading and excavating contractor, is estimated to be worth $1,-

FOR SALE-A roll top desk; renovated. good as new, antique walnut. Call 43 Wheeler Avenue, rear.

HOWLAND'S

Entrances in Main Street, Fairfield Avenue, and Cannon Street, Tuesday, May 25, 1915.

The Weather:-Fair tonight, Wednesday cloudy, warmer.

Further price-cut on good-style suits for young folks,

These suits are for all women who are young in thought and ideas and figure.

Many women find them excellent in both effect and fit. They have youth and beauty; they are of fine materials; are made in the tasteful fashions of this season.

But time has come to send them scurrying. What matter if they are of service all though the weeks and months to come; we prefer their room to their company.

Norfolks and cutaways, plain and brightly trimmed, plain fabrics and fancy checks and such,—it is a gathering of the most-attractive!

Originally $22.50 and $25 lately $18.50-

Originally $32.50 and $37.50 lately $25-

Originally $27.50 and $30 lately $22.50-

> $19 Originally $18 and $20 lately $15

Sizes range from 14 to 18; style range is complete. Second floor.

Some $3 Rengo belt corsets,-$2.

Straight from the factory, limited lot of these corsets that have unusual durability and good style.

with rustproof "watchspring" double other sort has quite the same steels, three pairs stout hose-support-ers, wide band of elastic webbing across lower part of back to give gaceful curve.

Medium bust, top finished with embroidery, wide spoon steels down front. Sizes 20 to 30, usually $3,

Second floor.

Good reading; very very good, in fact. There's interest and thrills and love and strife all blended or prominent in the new stories that have just hurried from pens of men and women whose work is mostliked today. Charles Neville Buck, worthy to rank alongside John Fox, tells a tale filled with the passion and the beauty of the Blue Ridge. 'Tis The Code of the Mountains,-$1.25. Mary Moreland, by Marie VanVorst usual price. whose Big Tremaine was a big story, The Double Traitor by E. Phillips Oppenheim is tense with war atmosphere-and Oppenheim knows as almost no other man of today, how to write of intrigue and politics,-$1.35. The Keeper of the Door-Ethel M. Dell,-$1.40. The Woman in the Car-Marsh, $1.35. The Highgrader-William MacLeaod Raine, $1.25.

The Watchdog-Hornblow, $1.25. Yes indeed, there is good reading a-plenty. Main floor, rear.

White stockings just fit little folks.

No intent to be funny; white stockings do fit little folks delightfully in their Heavy but fine coutil, firmly boned neatness and attraction. No pretty effect.

Fine-ribbed cotton, re-enforced heeland too,-12%c.

Mercerised lisle, fine-ribbed,-25c. Fiber silk, fine-ribbed, re-enforced heel toe and sole,-35c.

Bables' socks, fiber silk, have roll op,-25c. Babies' socks, lisle, fancy top,-25co Cotton socks for babies, pretty tops,

Left aisle, rear.

More wonderful rackets at little.

Told a little while ago of some great tennis rackets that had minor hurts and were selling at about half of Here are more! Not many folks could are the hurte. And they are sort that don't injure quality; only looks suffer.

They are freshly strung with des pendable gut; have speed and snapa; will delight the man or woman who is judge of racket's quality.

Flawless, they would sell at $3.50 to $8; with these triffing huts,- $1.95 $2.50 & $4

Front basement.

Let's look at the 89c underwear.

There's good reason to look at the underwear brought by this Spring sale for 89 cents.

Here's a nainsook slipover night-gown, for illustration. It is nice soft texture, cut with plenty of room, nicely stitched. Upon front and on each sleeve a bow-knot is outlined in hemstitching and beneath the hem-stitching is filled in the same bow-knot in an underlay of solid pink. It's new and charming.

Another nainsook gown is cut square at neck and sleeves and both are bordered with pink or blue. Then another and wider band of the same hue across the front gives a delightful Empire effect.

Pincess slip of nainsook has very-pretty yoke from of fisheye lace inserting made in combination with embroidered organdy. Its flounce of lace and inserting harmonizes with that yoke perfectly.

There are four models of chemise, splendid drawers, d styles of night-gown, 2 smart and charming combinations, 5 different models of petticoat,-all to be chosen from at this one typical price of

One novel sort of petticoat is made of fine nainsook and has a double flounce of narrow embroidery. It is cut with graceful fulness and the double flounce gives it just the right air. And then, to add still more to its charm, the embroidered pattern may be chosen from soft shades of pink or blue or lavender,

Second floor.

HOWLAND DRY GOODS CO.